We are particularly interested in the following (please check all that apply):

- Use of the Council's logo on our church's website and materials.
- Invitations to ecumenical and interfaith events.
- Participation in social justice activities.
- Source of speakers on timely topics.
- Theological perspectives on timely issues.
- Connection to congregations in different Christian denominations.
- Connection to religious leaders and congregations in different faith traditions.
- Other: _____ (Please turn over if more space is needed.)

Membership requires "a quality gift within a congregation's means."

We recognize that congregations come in all sizes and memberships and with a range of financial resources. One church might have limited resources and another, a large endowment. One might be a small family-size congregation with an average worship attendance of 25 and another, home to hundreds. Some might contribute to the Council out of their budget, others, out of mission dollars or offerings. Therefore, each congregation is empowered to determine its own annual gift to the Council.

We pledge to contribute $_____ to the Council in 2016 to be paid on (date) _____

We also would be willing to host meetings; identify people (please circle) to serve on mission teams, faith discussion groups, and advocacy committees; translate materials; organize meetings of congregations; hold the Council and its congregations in prayer daily; lead Council-wide book and discussion groups; Other _____.

Join us for a celebration of Member Congregations at the Heroes of Faith Breakfast on Nov. 3!
